All praise is due to Allah. May Allah's blessings and peace be upon the Messenger of Allah, and upon his family, his companions, and those who succeed him. As for what follows:

Allah ﷻ says, "Fight them and Allah will punish them at your hands, disgrace them, give you victory over them, and will heal the breasts of a believing people and remove the fury in their hearts. Allah turns in forgiveness to whom He wills, and Allah is Knowing and Wise" (At-Tawbah 14-15).

With the resolve of truthful muwahhidin who have placed their trust in their Lord and have disavowed their own ability and strength [to rely instead on the ability and strength of their Lord], a group of the men of the Khilafah and the guardians of the creed in the land of Persia have pounced in defense of their religion, acting to deter and suppress their enemy and to fulfill the Islamic State's promise to all those who have the blood of Ahlus-Sunnah on their hands. They breached one of the towers of the Majusi state of Iran, by Allah's grace and favor, and brought the sword of truth down on the necks of the lowly rabble of the Iranian state as well as its revolutionary guard as they were parading and showing their arrogance, surrounded by their security forces in the heart of their territory in the land of Ahwaz. They killed and massacred their soldiers, and the grandsons of the Sahabah and conquerors left the Majusi leaders and shrine servants dumbfounded.

They left them scattered, broke the awe of their revolutionary guard, which is feared by America and the governments in the region, and forced the Majusi leadership to randomly throw accusations as they stubbornly refused to state the plain truth, to the point that they became a laughing stock being mocked by the East and the West. And they still haven't awoken from the horrific shock, and with Allah's permission, it will not be the last. The sons of the Khilafah, with success granted by Allah, have demonstrated just how weak and fragile the security of the Majusi state of Iran is, for it is weaker than the home of a spider, and with Allah's ability and strength, what's coming will be worse and more bitter.

To the soldiers of the Khilafah and the carriers of the banner, specifically in Barakah in Sham Wilayah, and on all of the Islamic State's fronts in general, attach your hearts to the Firm and Strong, seek His protection – may He be glorified – and adhere to what He has commanded in His statement, "O you who have believed, when you encounter a company [from the enemy forces], stand firm and remember Allah much, so that you may be successful. And obey Allah and His Messenger, and do not dispute and [thus] lose courage and have your strength depart; and be patient. Indeed, Allah is with those who are patient" (Al-Anfal 45-46). Be steadfast, O lions of war, be harsh against the disbelieving criminals, and show Allah something good from yourselves, for victory only comes from the Almighty, the Wise.

And Allah prevails in His affair, but most people do not know.
